

Personal data shall only be collected for legitimate business purposes.

Customer consent must be obtained before collecting sensitive information.

Personal information must not be shared with unauthorized parties.

Data subjects may request access to their personal information.

Data deletion requests must be processed within 30 days.

Cross-border data transfers must comply with applicable regulations.

All employees handling personal data must complete privacy awareness training.

Privacy incidents must be reported immediately.