

Multi-factor authentication is required for privileged accounts.

Passwords must be changed every 90 days.

Security incidents must be reported within 24 hours.

Remote access must use approved VPN solutions.

Access rights shall follow the principle of least privilege.

Critical systems must undergo vulnerability assessments quarterly.

All company laptops must use full-disk encryption.

Software updates and security patches must be applied promptly.